

DEEP RUN MENNONITE CHURCH EAST

January 22, 2012

A black and white photograph of a misty forest. A winding path leads through the trees, and a large, leafless tree stands prominently in the foreground on the right. The scene is atmospheric and serene.

The grass withers, the flower fades but the Word of our God will stand forever. Isaiah 40:8

Today, DRE welcomes guest speaker, Glenn Witmer. Glenn is a very engaging teacher, writer, tour creator, leader, and former MMN worker. Glenn is passionate about the importance of the Holy Land in relation to one’s spiritual growth and understanding of the Scriptures and their relevance for our daily life and work. He has led tours to the Bible Lands, which several persons from DRE have participated in.

Glenn will also facilitate a conversation for interested persons in an Alternate SS class after the worship service, in the sanctuary. This will focus on the current situation in the Middle East.

The flowers this morning are in memory of Monroe Gahman who passed away, January 29, 2004. Given by Ruth Gahman and family.

The new 2012 flower calendar has been moved to the smaller bulletin board in the mailbox vestibule. We invite members to sign up to place flowers in the church in recognition of a special date or birthday. If you would like to do so, please see Libby Hestand.

Next Sunday, we will begin a 4-week sermon series on the Book of Jonah. Pastor Ken's sermon will be based on the Scripture text, Jonah 1:1-16.
