Today we continue with the sermon series, "I Love to Tell the Story". God called the people of Israel, and God calls each of us today to....talk about our Christian faith. On selected Sunday's this summer, the sermons are intended to help us to do just that. The format for these sermons will be a bit different than a "typical" sermon. Pastor Ken or Pastor Brent will present a brief introduction/meditation on the Scripture and theme for the given week, and then lead into an interview with a person from the congregation, who will "talk about" their faith in Christ, related to that week's Scripture/theme. A flyer with more information about the series and a list of series topics and participants is posted on the bulletin boards.

An elective Sunday School class, led by Joanne Gallardo, will meet every week for six weeks (possibly longer). In addition to reflecting on the sermon theme of the given week, the SS class will also look at how the theme relates to various Scriptures, our own faith journeys, the journeys of others, and how gleanings from the sermons help us to be more faithful followers of Jesus. The class will meet in the preschool area.

Next week Pastor Ken will interview Dan Nagel in the third in the “I Love to Tell the Story” series. The theme, “Allegiance to the Kingdom of God,” is based on the scripture text, John 18:28-40.

Next Sunday, Leadership Board representative, Daryl Hackman, will be in the preschool area between the service and Sunday school hour to speak with anyone wishing to discuss questions, concerns, or dreams for DRE.
