Hospitality Small Group Reflections

For me a benefit of our Hospitality Groups was getting to know people within our church better. I realize the purpose was to help us learn to reach out but I feel the groups also helped us to become stronger from within. The group experience gave me an awareness of ways to practice hospitality in my daily life and helped me to be watching for opportunities for hospitality. We also challenged each other to be aware of situations where we can perform random acts of kindness.

-Nancy Swartley

Election Day Communion
November 6, 7:00-8:00 p.m.
at Doylestown Mennonite Church

Deep Run East will be joining with Doylestown Mennonite and other local churches, as well as 262 congregations in 44 states, to commemorate communion. We will meet at the Lord's Table to gather, to practice, to give thanks for, and to proclaim our allegiance to Jesus Christ. One of the goals of the broader Election Day Communion campaign is to build unity in Christ in the midst of theological, political, and denominational differences.
