Thinking and Living Wisely:

Exploring the Wisdom Literature of Scripture. Life is a constant interaction between thinking and doing, belief and action. Life is also lived in relationship with others and before a God who holds humans accountable for their beliefs and actions. In this class, we will explore the resources God has given us in the "Wisdom literature" of Scripture both to negotiate life successfully, and to probe some of the deep questions that accompany this pursuit--questions of human freewill, the mystery of God's providence, and the problem of evil. This class will meet in the preschool room.
