Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

A Time for Everything

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

Guests! We are glad to have you here for worship today. We trust that you will encounter God's presence, as you worship with us. Please join us after the service so that we can fellowship together as we offer praise and thanksgiving to God! Please know you are welcome to worship with us again!

Greeters this evening:

Rich & Jeanette Baum, Al & Miriam Rice, Dean & Kathy Myers

Our offering for the Thanksgiving Eve Service this year will go to Mennonite Central Committee. MCC shares God's love and compassion for all in the name of Christ by responding to basic human needs and working for peace and justice. With workers and financial commitments in 65 countries around the world, MCC addresses basic human needs such as water, food and shelter and works alongside churches and communities in a variety of efforts to build peace.
