We are asking that when dropping by church during preschool hours and normal church hours, you enter through the church office doors and use the buzzer to come in. “Purposeful Parenting” by Jean S. Barnes

“Make car talk. Parents spend more time taking their kids to and from school and activities today than ten years ago. Make the most of that time with discussions on things you see along your route. See a place that’s run down or blighted? Ask what could be done to make it better? Keep thinking who, what, where, when and why- then what if...and you’ll get to the right questions for the best discussions.”
